

Terms and Conditions for Saving-Prizes Account

1. The savings account prize program is exclusively available in Jordanian Dinar currency for individual customers at Jordan branches.
2. A minimum balance of 100 JOD is required to open Saving - Prizes account.
3. One month must pass from the opening date of the prize savings account to be eligible for the draw.
4. Interest is applied to the prize savings account at a rate of 0.0001% according to the interest calculation mechanism approved by the bank.
5. The prize is valid for three months from the draw date. If this period elapses without the customer claiming the prize, the winner forfeits their right to receive it, and they cannot claim it from the bank.
6. The winning customer is liable for the income tax on the prizes, which amounts to 15% of the prize value if it is more than 1,000 dinars.
7. Winners are required to consent to the announcement of their names through the bank's various advertising platforms, including visual, audio, print, and social media. This announcement serves as notification to the customer, who does not have the right to object.
8. The bank retains the right to photograph grand prize winners and announce them through any advertising means deemed appropriate. If a customer objects to this, the bank reserves the right to withdraw the prize from them.
9. One winner of the weekly, quarterly, and annual prizes is dedicated to customers of provincial branches.
10. The customer acknowledges the validity of the bank's books, entries, accounts, and systems used in the prize draw process, and the customer has no right to object to them.
11. All savings account prizes are subject to the Bank's terms and conditions.
